

Hello

Here comes February, that means spring is coming.....

The weather has been a little chilly so I hope you all have been going to the indoor fun flies and building your winter projects, getting ready for some flying weather.

I wanted to mention that the Helena Flying Tigers is having their annual banquet Saturday February 2 at the 4b's, formerly Jorgenson's. I will not be able to make it this year but if anyone wants to go and represent the club that would be great. There is a great buffet dinner I believe it is $20 a plate. They also do a silent auction and just a great group of people to visit with. I can get you more information just let me know.

This next meeting Larry will be going over some of the building tools he uses, so bring some questions to ask or bring a project for show and tell.

See you at the meeting

The Eagles Nest!

Bird of Time

I'm building a sailplane for this summer. It's a Bird of Time with a 105" wingspan. I want to try it out on some of the warm summer days we have.

I will be in Arizona from Feb 22 until March 18 so I'll miss the March meeting. The first weekend there is a giant scale meet out east of Mesa. I'll have lots of pictures.

Quiz of the Month:

Can you tell which of these airliners is a DC-9, an MD-80, MD-90, or a Boeing 717?
